

SERMON NOTES—October 30, 2022

Chameleon—Chosen 1 Peter 2:9-10

EMBRACE THEIR NEW IDENTITY IN CHRIST

DON'T BLEND IN LIKE A CHAMELEON

- 1 Peter 2:9-10

WE ARE GOD'S SPECIAL _____

We Are A _____

Chosen - eklektos means those selected or picked out

- Deuteronomy 7:6
- Ephesians 4:1-6
- Psalm 33:12
- John 15:16

We Are A _____

- Psalm 110:4

We Are A _____

- Exodus 19:6
- Ephesians 2:10

handiwork—poema

- James 1:27

QUESTIONS FOR SMALL GROUPS/PERSONAL REFLECTION

October 30, 2022

1. What old hurts and insecurities might still be bothering you?
2. Who or where do you look for validation of your self-worth?
3. Why does Peter say we are a chosen people?
4. What do our royal priestly garments look like today?
5. How are you staying unspotted, unpolluted from the world and the things of this world?
6. How are you practicing a faith that helps and serves others, especially the less fortunate?
7. How would you describe a Christian who has religion but not holiness?
8. How do you want to define your identity?
9. Are you living as a chameleon, blending in with the rest of the world, or are you embracing your new identity in Christ?