

SERMON NOTES—May 7, 2023

FOOLISH & WEAK ...BUT GOD
1 Corinthians 1:26-31

BUT GOD... WHEN IT SEEMS LIKE EVERYTHING IS HOPELESS, GOD'S GOT THIS

- 1 Corinthians 1:26-31

WE ARE JUNK, BUT GOD CHOSE US ANYWAY

- Romans 5:6-10

PAUL REMINDS THEM OF THEIR _____ BEGINNINGS (V. 26)

- Philippians 3:3-9

- Romans 3:23-24

PAUL REMINDS THEM OF THEIR _____ POSITION (27-29)

FINALLY, PAUL REMINDS THEM OF ALL THEY _____ IN JESUS (30-31)

QUESTIONS FOR SMALL GROUPS/PERSONAL REFLECTION
May 7, 2023

1. What kind of junk is laying around your house?
2. Why should we be looking to God to know who are we are?
3. Why is God the Greatest Junk Artist ever?
4. What is it about human beings that cause God to want to salvage us?
5. Why does the miracle of God's grace in Jesus Christ utterly confound the high and mighty people of the world?
6. How does God reveal the foolishness and weakness of our present world, even with its philosophy and religion?
7. If believers in Christ have all they need in Him, why would compete with each other or compare themselves to each other?
8. In what ways do we repeat the same mistakes at the Corinthians?
9. Are we living up to the calling Jesus to be holy, in fellowship to each other and glorifying God? If not, where do we fall short?
10. Jesus gave up His life for your salvation, are you saved?